

Antonio Jarvey is a saxophonist from Great Falls, Montana. Antonio has studied with Dr. Johan Eriksson, Zach Shemon, Dr. Timothy McAllister, Dr. Andrew Bishop, Hal Hugg, and Ron Coons. Antonio has performed with numerous groups including, the Interlochen World Youth Wind Symphony, NYO-USA, Honor Band of America, NAFME All-Northwest Band, Montana All-State Band, and the Montana All-State Jazz Band.

Antonio has garnered top prizes from numerous woodwind competitions. These include the Medici, London, Paris, and Birmingham International Competitions, the 2020 and 2022 University of Montana Concerto Competitions, the MTNA National Woodwind Competition, and the 2021 and 2023 Montana Association of Symphony Orchestras Young Artist Competition.

As a soloist Antonio has performed with the Curtis Institute Symphony, Chinook Winds, Billings Symphony, Great Falls Symphony, Helena Symphony, University of Montana Symphony Orchestra, University of Montana Symphonic Wind Ensemble, University of Montana Concert Band, Great Falls Youth Orchestra, and the Great Falls Municipal Band.

As an advocate of new music, Antonio has commissioned works by Elise Arancio, Justin Zeitlinger, Katie Jenkins, Karalyn Schubring, Bryan Kostors, Isabelle Pearson, Sylvia Wood, Owen Kirby, and Veronica Stimpfling.

Antonio received his Bachelor's Degree in Music Performance at the University of Montana under the direction of Dr. Johan Eriksson. He is currently pursuing his Master's Degree at the Bienen School of Music at Northwestern University with Professor Taimur Sullivan.